IMPORTANT VFW STATE CONVENTION INFORMATION

Clearly the pandemic has changed most everything we would have normally done.

So, we are going to have an in-person State VFW (and Auxiliary) convention at the same Sheraton hotel in Rocky Hill, CT. The dates are June 12th and 13th. The State Commander has called for the uniforms of the day to be Kacie's with State Commanders shirts or 3 button golf shirts, (no dungarees, shorts or "T" shirts) for the business sessions on Saturday and Sunday and Blues and Greys for the installation of officers on Sunday.

This will be a compressed convention with no large Memorial Service, just a small one on Sunday morning and no Banquet Saturday night, no teachers, scouts or VOD or Patriot Pen state winners. (The state American Legion is only having a Saturday Convention and other VFW Departments are virtual)

The agenda is in this mailing (Subject to change) along with the Awards Breakfast flyer. Please understand that we will be giving out two years of contest awards on Saturday and Past Commander-in-Chief Paul Spera and Jr. Vice Commander-in-Chief select, Dwaine Sarmiento will both be there to pass out some of the awards. The Post 100, 75 and 50 year anniversary awards will also be given out along with the 100% awards for the 2019-20 year that haven't received them and of course the 2020-21 ones.

By-Laws, Resolution's and any other necessary business will be addressed at the convention and the nominations, election and installation of the 2021-2022 officers will also take place.

There is a link to book a room at the hotel if you care to on our website at vfwct.org

If you have any questions or concerns, shoot me an e-mail at stct@vfw.necoxmail.com
